

Bylaws

Shasta Trinity Unit of BACKCOUNTRY HORSEMEN OF CALIFORNIA

ARTICLE I. NAME

- Section 1. The name of this unit of the Backcountry Horsemen of California shall be: Shasta Trinity Unit.

ARTICLE II. GOALS AND PURPOSES

- Section 1. To promote care and conservation of back country trails, campsites, streams and meadows.
- Section 2. To foster the use of back country trails by stock persons in the National Parks and Forests, State Parks, BLM Lands, and other public lands.
- Section 3. To keep the membership informed of regulations that affect stock use on public lands, and to inform the membership of any pending regulations that might affect their use.
- Section 4. To promote public knowledge of the historical aspects of stock use in the back country.
- Section 5. To keep public land administrators aware of the works and interests of the unit.

ARTICLE III. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- Section 1. The management of the affairs, property, business and control of policy is vested in the Board of Directors.
- Section 2. The Board of Directors shall be composed of twelve or more members. The Board of Directors shall be elected from the general membership at its first general membership meeting, and at the annual membership meeting thereafter.
- Section 3. The Board of Directors shall meet as determined by the Board at the annual meeting.
- Section 4. Directors in attendance at any meeting shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of conducting business of the unit.

ARTICLE IV. OFFICERS

- Section 1. The unit shall have a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, and any other office as determined necessary by the Board of Directors. The Board shall also select two representatives to serve on the State Board of Directors and two representatives to serve on the State Public Lands Committee.
- Section 2. DUTIES OF THE OFFICERS: Shall perform all duties that are usual and customary for that office, or designated by the Board of Directors.
- Section 3. Vacancies shall be filled by the Board of Directors at its next meeting.
- Section 4. The term of service for each office shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be determined by the Board.

ARTICLE V. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Individual or Family Membership in the Backcountry Horsemen of California is open to any person/family interested in the goals and purposes of the Association. Each member in good standing shall have one vote in affairs submitted to the general membership. Each family membership shall have two votes.

Section 2. Membership in the Shasta Trinity Unit of the BCHC is open to any member in good standing with the Backcountry Horsemen of California. Individual members will have one vote, families two votes, in affairs of the Shasta Trinity Unit.

Section 3. DUES: are established by the State Board of Directors of the Backcountry Horsemen of California. One half of dues collected by the State Board is returned to the unit of which that member is affiliated. Additional dues may be assessed by the Shasta Trinity unit of the BCHC.

Section 4. MEETINGS: There shall be at least two annual general membership meetings, and any other meetings deemed necessary by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI. COMMITTEES

Section 1. The Chairman of each committee shall be selected from the Board of Directors by the President. Each Chairman shall select individual members of their committee from the general membership.

Section 2. Standing Committees shall be: Newsletter, Membership, Special Events, Government Liaison, and Volunteer Projects. The Board of Directors or the President may form additional committees as needed.

ARTICLE VII. AMENDMENTS

Section 1. These Bylaws may be amended at any meeting of the Board of Directors by a two thirds vote of all directors.

ADOPTED: February 23, 1991

UNIT NAME: Shasta Trinity Unit

Dan Suther, President

John C. Ellery, Secretary